Re: John D. Meaney

Dear Mr. Myers:

Your email has been forwarded to me from our Patent Counsel, David Simonelli, dated April 3, 2003. Mr. Simonelli has been attempting to obtain your client's Mr. Meaney's, cooperation in signing some additional papers that are required to allow us to prosecute certain patent rights, which were covered under the "Settlement Release and Confidentiality Agreement", which Meaney and Federal Mogul agreed to in a Federal Court Order. Meaney is required under the Federal Court ordered "Settlement Release and Confidentiality Agreement" to cooperate with us in this endeavor.

In your email, you have once again threatened us with legal action, because you believe that somehow we owe a duty to Meaney to require others, including our suppliers, to sell Meaney certain parts and in particular, a Rev A circuit board produced by CCI.

You have specifically charged that we have in some way interfered with Meaney's rights to buy the Rev A boards from CCI. As you have previously been informed, we have not interfered with Meaney and specifically we have not been in contact with CCI with regard to Meaney. Our position is and always has been that Meaney is free to produce any product to which he is entitled. As a matter of fact, we have even offered to sell to Mr. Meaney Rev A boards. This offer, which has been made in the past, now comes with the proviso that Meaney is in full compliance with the "Settlement Release and Confidentiality Agreement".

If you and your client continue to threaten us, and Meaney continues to refuse to comply with his obligations under the "Settlement Release and Confidentiality Agreement", our offer and cooperation with Meaney will terminate.

Very truly yours,

Ronald L. Coleman
